Do you miss storytime at the Library? Now you can enjoy storytime any time and all you need is a phone.

We are now offering a new service called The Smithtown Library Story Line. We have a wide range of stories and fun for children under the age of 12 and you can listen to them as many times as you want.

Simply call (631) 652-6052 and follow the prompted directions. You can choose from the following: a story for preschoolers, a fairy tale, poetry, jokes and riddles and short stories. You can also make a suggestion or provide feedback.

We change our stories each Wednesday so be sure to call often for new adventures.

Library Director

Help Save Our Local History: Documenting the Coronavirus Pandemic

You can participate in a variety of ways:

- Collect relevant items you may come across during your daily activities
- Keep a journal about or otherwise reflect upon your experiences (i.e. essay, poetry, artwork, etc.)
- Share photographs/videos of the way your life or surroundings have changed

For more information about this project and collecting examples, please visit https://smithlib.org/documenting. If you are interested in possibly donating materials to this collection or have any questions, please contact the Long Island Room at 631-360-2480, ext. 197 or via email at longislandroom@smithlib.org.

The Smithtown Library’s Long Island Room invites you to participate in an important project!

Over the course of the last few months, the coronavirus pandemic and subsequent shutdowns have had a dramatic impact on the entire world and our own community. As challenging as these times are, however, it is important to recognize and document the historical significance of this period so that future generations may learn from it. We hope that you may be willing to help the Long Island Room with this effort.

Have You Tried Our Curbside Pickup?

Monday – Thursday
10:00am – 7:00pm
Friday & Saturday
10:00am – 4:00pm

1. Place holds on library material through our online catalog or by calling the Library. The catalog can be accessed from our website.
2. When your items become available, a staff member will contact you to schedule a pickup date and time. You will need your library card barcode to schedule a pickup time.
3. Upon arriving at the Library, park in a designated curbside spot and call the number on the curbside pickup sign.
4. Staff will place your items on a table by the front entrance for you to collect. Items will be in a bag with your name.
The January Board of Trustee meeting will be held virtually or in-person at the Smithtown Building depending on New York State guidelines. Please check the Library’s website or call for the most up-to-date information.

The Library cannot accept bills larger than $20.00 in payment for overdue items or program registration. Thank you for your cooperation.

The Library is glad to provide reasonable accommodations for patrons with special needs. Please call us two weeks prior to a program to make arrangements.

The Library is open for all ages for use during Library programs. The device must be reserved in advance by contacting a Reference Librarian in any Library building.

For weather closings/delayed openings please visit: WBLI, WBAB and News12

Library programs for use in publicity. This includes use in our Newsletter, website and social media. Please inform us if you do not want photos or videos taken of you or your child.

Long Island Room
THE ROARING 20S ON LONG ISLAND

The 1920s roared on Long Island as they did throughout the rest of the country. This unique period, marked by increased affluence, prohibition of alcohol, popularization of jazz music and flapper fashion, as well as a variety of other social and political changes greatly impacted life on Long Island. To illustrate this, the Long Island Room has assembled a collection of materials that represent the important historical events and popular culture experienced on Long Island during the Roaring 20s.
