How to Download and Stream Music with Freegal Music+

You will need a valid library card with password, internet access and a computer or mobile device

What is Freegal Music+?
- Freegal Music+ is a free music service that allows you to stream or download titles from a collection of over 16 million songs in more than 200 genres.

How much music can I get?

- You can download 3 songs per week. Songs that are downloaded are yours to keep.
- There is no limit to how much music you can stream on Freegal Music+! When you stream, you are accessing the file on a temporary basis.

What devices can I use?

- You can access Freegal Music+ directly from our website on a computer or mobile device.
- You can download the Freegal Music+ app from the Apple App Store, the Google Play Store, or for a Kindle Fire, on Amazon.

Getting started

- From the Website: Go to www.smithlib.org and click eBooks, Audiobooks and More. Links to Freegal are on the top left. Click More Details for a description and a tutorial, or click View Freegal to open the site. Log in using your library card barcode number and your library password.
- For the App: Go to your App Store and download the Freegal Music app. Type Smithtown and select The Smithtown Library from the list. Enter your library barcode number and pin, then select Log In.

Finding Music

- Browse icon links to Playlists, Artists, Albums, New Arrivals and more.
- Scroll down to see more featured content.
- Look for a specific song, album or artist using the Search box.
    - On a computer: Top right of the screen
    - On a mobile device: Bottom right of the screen

Playing Music

- To stream music:
  - On a computer: Click the play arrow to the left of the song title.
  - On a mobile device: Tap the song title. Tap again to stop.
- To download music:
  - On a computer: Click the down arrow to the far right of the title. A link will appear at the bottom of the screen. Click the link, select open and choose where you want to save the song.
  - On a mobile device: Tap the three dot icon to the right of the title, then tap Download Song.
  - Please note that each click or tap on download counts against your weekly limit, so make sure it's the title you want before selecting download.

Monitoring Limits

- On a computer: The number of available downloads will be displayed at the top of the screen, just to the left of the Search box.
- On a mobile device: Tap the three line menu icon at the top right to see your remaining availability
- Your download limit will reset every Monday at 12am.
- To get reminders of your available downloads:
  - On a Computer: Go to Settings in the top right corner, select Notifications and enter your email address. You can disable this function the same way.
  - On a mobile device: Tap the three line menu icon at the top right corner and select Notifications. Choose push notifications or email notifications and enter requested information. Disable this function the same way.

Need More Help?

- On a computer: Click on Settings and select FAQ for answers to many common questions.
- On a mobile device: Tap the three line menu icon and select FAQ.

For further assistance, please contact the Reference Desk at any Smithtown Library Building at (631) 360-2480.