LearnLab Program

Design-a-Bookmark Contest

June 17-August 10

(Entering Grade K-5)

Do you want to see your artwork in print? Enter our Design-a-Bookmark contest. Visit the Children's Department of any building to pick up an entry form. Twelve winning designs will be chosen to decorate our monthly bookmarks during 2025. Be creative; celebrate your favorite books, the adventure of reading or the Library. Use your imagination and have fun.

500 Books Before Middle School

Keep on reading! 500 Books Before Middle School is an ongoing literacy program for elementary-age children in kindergarten through 5th grade. Children are encouraged to read (or have read to them) any book, earning prizes along the way! The goal is to read 500 books before entering middle school. Just reading two books a week equals 104 books a year, which is plenty of time to complete the challenge. Get started at the Library beginning June 17!

Children's Summer Reading Programs

June 17-August 10

First Step to Reading

Read to your baby and build your baby's early literacy skills. Babies and toddlers from birth through 35 months can participate in this summer program. Stop by the Children's Department of your local library building beginning on June 17 to register and pick up a chart. As you complete 25 activities with your little one, they will earn small prizes and receive a certificate upon completion.

Adventure Begins at Your Library

Join in the summer fun at the Library! All readers and pre-readers from age 3 through 5th grades are invited to participate in this year's Children's Summer Reading Program, Adventure Begins at Your Library. The program starts on June 17 and continues through August 10. Visit your local library building to join. Participants will earn prizes for the books they read.

The End of the Innocence - The 1964-1965 New York World's Fair

Tuesday, June 25 • 7:00- 8:30pm

From April to October in 1964 and again in 1965, some 52 million people from around the world flocked to the New York World's Fair in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park. While some critics derided the Fair as the "ugly duckling" of global expositions and others pointed to the controversial role of World's Fair president Robert Moses, the Fair itself was for the great majority of visitors an overwhelmingly positive, often inspirational and sometimes transcendent experience that truly delivered on its theme of "peace through understanding." Join Lawrence R. Samuel, author, cultural historian, and former Smithsonian Institution Fellow as he examines the legacy of the 1964-1965 New York World's Fair as a seminal event that offered its visitors sanctuary from the cultural storms that were rapidly approaching mid-1960s America. Books will be available for purchase and signing. Registration is ongoing.

Balloon Mission

The Smithtown Library is thrilled to announce our partnership with Balloon Mission, a not-for-profit organization that collects and repurposes latex and mylar balloons before they become litter. One of Balloon Mission's initiatives is to partner with organizations to raise awareness and give people a chance to do better for our environment. Balloons can be dropped off in the labeled blue plastic recycling bins located at any of our Library buildings.

We will accept:

- Deflated mylar and latex balloons
- Ribbons & strings
- Water balloons (all pieces)
- Punch ball balloons

Each year locals and tourists alike take advantage of and enjoy the many points of interest that Long Island has to offer. Known for its famous historic sites, beautiful coastal beaches, entertaining amusement parks, iconic roadside attractions and world-renowned wineries, the region is considered one of New York's top travel destinations. Learn about the history of some of the Island's most well-known amusements and attractions through the materials assembled for this year's Long Island Room exhibit, on view through December 2024.
